To commemorate the 100th anniversary of Ignaz Goldziher's death, the Hungarian Academy of Sciences in cooperation with the Israeli Academy of Sciences will hold a conference between 10 a.m. and 12 a.m. (UTC+01:00) on Monday, November 15, 2021. The program will be opened by its patron, Tamás Freund, President of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

The lectures can be followed live at the YouTube channel of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences: https://www.youtube.com/c/MTA1825/featured

The program: Greetings by Miklós Maróth, Member of the Academy

Lectures:

Goldziher's reception in the Arab world Yohanan Friedmann (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

The Portrait of Goldziher: The Man behind the Scholar Kinga Dévényi (Corvinus University of Budapest, and Library of the Hungarian

Maimonides on Divine Reward and Punishment as a Necessary Belief

Yair Lorberbaum (Bar-Ilan University)

Academy of Sciences)

Ibn Sina on the life in the hereafter and the issue of human responsibility Jules Janssens (De Wulf-Mansion Centre for

Ancient, Medieval and Renaissance Philosophy)

Exhibition:

November 15, 2021 to February 15, 2022

Venue: Entrance hall of the palace of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. Open: weekdays in the opening hours of the building.