

Covid-19 Campus Guide

Meeting Rooms and Common Spaces

Welcome back to Campus!

Meeting Rooms and Common Spaces have been reset to full occupancy.

- Physical distancing guidelines and protocols should be followed by those individuals who are not vaccinated
- Capacity of every meeting room and common space has been restored in accordance with CDC and State of New Jersey guidelines
- Lectures, meetings and seminars will be able to be a combination of in-person and virtual attendance to accommodate everyone for the fall. Check with your School Administrator for more information.

What WE are doing:

- Lecture, meeting and seminar rooms have been restored
- Audio/visual capabilities have been established in each space with instructional guides for unassisted operation.
- Multi-use spaces will have guidance on availability/accessibility depending on other occupancy.
- Outdoor spaces have been created for collaborations and outdoor eating near Bloomberg Hall, Wolfensohn & Simonyi Halls, the SHS/SSS Library and in the Birch Garden
- Weather proof blackboards have been placed strategically on campus for outdoor use
- Collaboration circles have been created on the North & South Lawns with Adirondack chairs for small discussion groups

What YOU Must do on Campus:

- Wear a mask if not fully vaccinated per State guidelines
- Maintain physical distancing – stay 6' or 2 meters apart if not vaccinated
- Observe and abide by all occupancy restrictions posted at each room
- Check the availability of a space with your administrative staff in your school before using an empty space
- Reserve a room in advance if a planned collaboration/seminar/lecture
- Do not meet in someone else's office without the occupant's permission
- Leverage outdoor meeting spaces or virtual meeting platforms

Frequently Asked Questions

Is the gym available for use?

The Fitness Center has reopened. In order to comply with the current requirements from the CDC and state and local health authorities, the following rules are in effect until further notice.
