

Fireplaces must always be operated with the damper OPEN and the screens closed. Glass doors may be opened or closed, but should be closed before retiring for the night. Ashes are to remain in the fireplace for at least 48 hours after the fire is out to ensure there are no hot embers. Ashes, when cold, can be placed in the regular trash containers outside.