Abstract: This talk will discuss joint work with Michael Handel concerning the dynamic structure of symplectic diffeomorphisms of the two-sphere. The intended application is the study of groups of "fully supported" diffeomorphisms (e.g. analytic) and the structure of their centralizers. Preliminary results supporting some conjectures will be presented.